IT3120 - Modern Enterprise Management

Entrepreneurship for ICT Professionals

Tutorial

1. Define entrepreneurship. How does entrepreneurship differ from simply starting a business?

2. Identify two advantages and two disadvantages of choosing entrepreneurship over a traditional ICT career path.

3. What is an entrepreneurial mindset? List four characteristics of successful entrepreneurs.

4. Differentiate between entrepreneurship and intrapreneurship.

5. List the seven key stages of the entrepreneurship process in the correct order.

6. A student develops a mobile application that helps university students find internships. What factors should be evaluated to determine whether this idea is a viable business opportunity?

7. Explain the four major areas of feasibility analysis.

8. How do the following contribute to Sri Lanka's digital economy?

a) Smartphone penetration

b) Digital payments

9. Identify four opportunity areas for ICT entrepreneurs in Sri Lanka and provide one example solution for each.

IT3120 - Modern Enterprise Management

Entrepreneurship for ICT Professionals

Tutorial

10. Why are ICT products easier to scale globally than traditional physical products?

11. Discuss three major challenges faced by ICT startups.

12. What is an MVP (Minimum Viable Product)? Why is it important?

13. Identify five types of risks commonly faced by ICT startups.

14. What common success factors can be observed in companies such as WSO2, PickMe, 99X, and Kapruka?

15. You have been given LKR 1 million to start an ICT venture targeting university students. Briefly describe:

- The problem you will solve
- Your proposed solution
- Target customers
- Revenue model